Eviction Protection Program

It is an unfortunate truth that evictions can happen to any Real Estate Owner. Even great tenants with an impeccable rental history can come upon difficult times and find themselves unable to pay rent and also find it difficult to move. A job loss, divorce, and health issues are frequent causes. When this occurs, an expensive and time consuming procedure with the court system for eviction begins. This can cost the owner a significant amount of money. Sooner or later, most landlords will be faced with the costly procedure of an eviction, not to mention the loss of the rental income.

Katy Property Management has the solution. We have a cost-effective program that protects our owners from the high cost and the time-consuming headaches that come with evicting a tenant. For only $8 per month/per property, this program will cover the cost of virtually all evictions. This could save you thousands of dollars.

Our Eviction Protection Program will be included in all Katy Property Management Agreements, and will pay the following:

- * Attorney Fees (up to a maximum of $1000)
- * Eviction Filing Fees (up to a maximum of $300)
- * Process Server Fees (up to a maximum of $500)
- * Court Fees (up to a maximum of $500)
- * Court Appearance by Realtor for Owner (up to a maximum of $500)
- * Writ of Possession Fees (up to a maximum of $500)

- * Placing Tenant Possessions Curbside (in accordance with eviction code, up to a maximum of $500)
- * Locksmith Costs (Rekeying when Sheriff enforces eviction, up to a maximum of $300)

In summary, court costs and filing fees in connection with most Forcible Entry and Detainer Suits (eviction) against a tenant at the Justice of the Peace Court. Generally, evictions are the result of nonpayment of rent, but they can also be initiated for other violations of the rental agreement.

For example; unauthorized roommates or unauthorized pets. The law requires an attorney (or you) to appear for these cases. The Katy Property Management Eviction Protection also covers you for this type of eviction!

What the program does not cover:

- * Lost rents
- * Damage to the property
- * This Program does not cover Appeals to the courts or trials above the Justice of the Peace Court.
- * In the event that the tenants wins in court, this program does not cover the Owner for the Tenant's Attorney fees, court ordered fines, damages or penalties. This is a rare occurrence that has happened in only a few cases when the Owners acted against our advice.

The program will be automatically included in your management agreement. The yearly cost of $96.00 (Ninety six dollars) is billed to your October statement each year. A prorated amount will be charged to management accounts beginning after October.

Ten Reasons Why You Should Not Feel Guilty About Evictions

1. Always start evictions immediately, if tenants need extra time, the court will give it to them.
2. You don't make a profit with evictions; you only cut your losses.
3. You've already supplied the "needy" tenant with free housing, you have done your charity work, give someone else a chance.
4. If the tenant doesn't have a friend or relative to help him out, doesn't that say a lot about the tenant's character?
5. If someone asks you how you could put someone on the street, ask them to pay the rent and you won't evict them.
6. The tenant has kept possession of your house and is stealing from you, He has stolen your home, your utilities and your services, the tenant is a thief. Do stores let your tenant go in and take from them?
7. Letting a tenant stay in your house who is not paying rent is like giving your tenant your charge card and telling him, "Feel free to spend, I like loaning out money interest free without knowing I'll be paid back".
8. How would you feel if you worked all week and your employer said I don't have a paycheck for you, Guess what your tenant has just told you that! Do you work for nothing?
9. If you want to maintain your home and let the occupants live there rent free, you should decide who the occupants will be, not your tenant. There are lots of people you may find more deserving.
10. Your tenant is taking money, time and energy from you, which you could use to provide for your family's needs, Picture yourself trying to tell your child that you could not buy him or her an item because you had to pay a stranger's rent so the stranger could buy gifts for his or her child.
